The first Trustees hold the sum of £1500.00

on the trusts declared in this deed and they expect that more money or assets will be acquired by them on the same trusts.

NOW THIS DEED WITNESSES AS FOLLOWS:

1. Administration

The charitable trust created by this deed (“the Charity”) shall be administered by the Trustees. (In this deed, the expression “the Trustees” refers to the individuals who are the Trustees of the Charity at any given time. It includes the first Trustees and their successors. The word “Trustee” is used to refer to any one of the Trustees.)

2. Name

The Charity shall be called

Blythburgh Latitude Trust

but the Trustees may by resolution change the Charity’s name from time to time. Before doing so they must obtain the written approval of the Charity Commission for England and Wales (“the Commission”) for the new name

3. Application of income

The Trustees must apply the income of the Charity in furthering the following objects (“the objects”)

Purpose; To make grants to assist financing a range of activities or equipment for those in need or that support and build community life in the Parish of Blythburgh with Bulcamp and Hinton (hereafter referred to as “Blythburgh”), or that support Blythburgh children at their catchment primary school.

People; Grants will be considered from those who can demonstrate a need or are serving on the PTA or Governing Body of Blythburgh catchment Primary School

4. Application of capital

At their discretion, the Trustees may spend all or part of the capital of the Charity in furthering the objects.

5. Raising Funds

The Blythburgh Latitude Trust is funded by the sale of tickets to the annual Latitude Festival held on the Henham Estate. Tickets to the festival are donated to Blythburgh Parish Council by the organisers Festival Republic. Blythburgh Parish Council created Blythburgh Latitude Trust as a way of using the money raised from the sale of the donated tickets. Blythburgh Latitude Trust Trustees ensure the money raised is used as stated in “the objects” of the Trust, see section 3 ‘Application of Income’.

Blythburgh Parish Councillors agreed to remain as the conduit between Festival Republic and the Blythburgh Latitude Trust, via the Parish Councillor nominated Trustee, but that raising funds via the ticket allocation and distribution process would be the responsibility of the Trust.

6. Powers

In addition to any other powers they have, the Trustees may exercise any of the following powers in order to further the objects (but not for any other purpose):

- (i) to raise funds. In exercising this power, the Trustees must not undertake any substantial permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
- (ii) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them;
- (iii) to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the objects;
- (iv) to acquire, merge with or enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other Charity formed for any of the objects;
- (v) to create such advisory committees as the Trustees think fit;
- (vi) to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Charity;
- (vii) to do any other lawful thing that is necessary or desirable for the achievement of the objects.

7. Statutory powers

Nothing in this deed restricts or excludes the exercise by the Trustees of the powers given by the Trustee Act 2000 as regards investment, the acquisition or disposal of land and the employment of agents, nominees and custodians.

8. Delegation

- (i) In addition to their statutory powers, the Trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more Trustees. A committee must act in accordance with any directions given by the Trustees. It must report its decisions and activities fully and promptly to the Trustees. It must not incur expenditure on behalf of the Charity except in accordance with a budget previously agreed by the Trustees.
- (ii) The Trustees must exercise their powers jointly at properly convened meetings except where they have:
 - (a) Delegated the exercise of the powers (either under this provision or under any statutory provision), or
 - (b) Made some other arrangements, by regulations under clause 22.
- (iii) The Trustees must consider from time to time whether the powers or functions which they have delegated should continue to be delegated.

9. Duty of care and extent of liability

When exercising any power (whether given to them by this deed, or by statute, or by any rule of law) in administering or managing the Charity, each of the Trustees must use the level of care and skill that is reasonable in the circumstances, taking into account any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or claims to have (“the duty of care”).

No Trustee, and no one exercising powers or responsibilities that have been delegated by the Trustees, shall be liable for any act or failure to act unless, in acting or in failing to act, he or she has failed to discharge the duty of care.

10. Appointment of Trustees

(i) There must be at least three Trustees but no more than eight, of which two should be members of Blythburgh Parish Council. Apart from the first Trustees, every Trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution of the Trustees passed at a special meeting called under clause 15 of this deed.

(ii) In selecting individuals for appointment as Trustees, the Trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the Charity.

(iii) The Trustees must keep a record of the name and address and the dates of appointment, re-appointment and retirement of each Trustee.

(iv) The Trustees must make available to each new Trustee, on his or her first appointment:

(a) a copy of this deed and any amendments made to it;

(b) a copy of the Charity's latest report and statement of accounts.

(v) The first Trustees shall hold office for the following periods respectively:

Name: David Tytler
Period: 4 years (from 28th August 2008)

Name: Lucy Clapham
Period: 3 years (from 28th August 2008)

Name: Jenny Allen
Period: 3 years (from 28th August 2008)

Name: Michael Nichols
Period: 3 years (from 28th August 2008)

11. Eligibility for trusteeship

(i) No one shall be appointed as a Trustee:

(a) if he or she is under the age of 18 years; or

(b) if he or she would at once be disqualified from office under the provisions of clause [12] of this deed.

(ii) No one shall be entitled to act as a Trustee whether on appointment or on any re-appointment as Trustee until he or she has expressly acknowledged, in whatever way the Trustees decide, his or her acceptance of the office of Trustee of the Charity.

12. Termination of trusteeship

A Trustee shall cease to hold office if he or she:

(i) is disqualified for acting as a Trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision;

(ii) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing his or her own affairs;

(iii) is absent without the permission of the Trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the Trustees resolve that his or her office be vacated; or
(iv) notifies to the Trustees a wish to resign (but only if enough Trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation takes effect to form a quorum for meetings).

13. Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs the Trustees must note the fact in the minutes of their next meeting. Any eligible Trustee may be re-appointed. So long as there are fewer than three Trustees, none of the powers or discretions conferred by this deed or by law on the Trustees shall be exercisable by the remaining Trustees except the power to appoint new Trustees.

14. Ordinary meetings

The Trustees must hold at least two ordinary meetings each year. One such meeting in each year must involve the physical presence of those Trustees who attend the meeting. Other meetings may take such form, including videoconferencing, as the Trustees decide provided that the form chosen enables the Trustees both to see and to hear each other.

15. Calling meetings

The Trustees must arrange at each of their meetings the date, time and place of their next meeting, unless such arrangements have already been made. Ordinary meetings may also be called at any time by the person elected to chair meetings of the Trustees or by any two Trustees. In that case not less than ten days' clear notice must be given to the other Trustees. The first meeting of the Trustees must be called by

6th November 2008

or, if no meeting has been called within three months after the date of this deed, by any two of the Trustees.

16. Special meetings

A special meeting may be called at any time by the person elected to chair meetings of the Trustees or by any two Trustees. Not less than four days' clear notice must be given to the other Trustees of the matters to be discussed at the meeting. However, if those matters include the appointment of a Trustee or a proposal to amend any of the trusts of this deed, not less than 21 days' notice must be given. A special meeting may be called to take place immediately after or before an ordinary meeting.

17. Chairing of meetings

The Trustees at their first ordinary meeting in each year must elect one of their number to chair their meetings. The person elected shall always be eligible for re-election. If that person is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding a meeting, or if no one has been elected, or if the person elected has ceased to be a Trustee, the Trustees present must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

The person elected to chair meetings of the Trustees shall have no other additional functions or powers except those conferred by this deed or delegated to him or her by the Trustees.

18. Quorum

(i) Subject to the following provision of this clause, no business shall be conducted at a meeting of the Trustees unless at least one third of the total number of Trustees at the time, or three Trustees (whichever is the greater) are present throughout the meeting.

(ii) The Trustees may make regulations specifying different quorums for meetings dealing with different types of business.

(iii) For the discussion and approval/rejection of applications to the Trust a minimum of three Trustees must be present at the meeting.

19. Voting

At meetings, decisions must be made by a majority of the Trustees present and voting on the question. The person chairing the meeting shall have a casting vote whether or not he or she has voted previously on the same question but no Trustee in any other circumstances shall have more than one vote.

20. Conflict of interest

A Trustee must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Trustees in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

21. Minutes

The Trustees must keep minutes, in books kept for the purpose or by such other means as the Trustees decide, of the proceedings at their meetings. In the minutes the Trustees must record their decisions and, where appropriate, the reasons for those decisions. The Trustees must approve the minutes in accordance with the procedures, laid down in regulations made under clause 22 of this deed.

22. General power to make regulations

The Trustees may from time to time make regulations for the management of the Charity and for the conduct of their business, including:

(i) the calling of meetings;

(ii) methods of making decisions in order to deal with cases or urgency when a meeting is impractical;

(iii) the deposit of money at a bank;

(iv) the custody of documents; and

(v) the keeping and authenticating of records. (If regulations made under this clause permit records of the Charity to be kept in electronic form and requires a Trustee to sign the record, the regulations must specify a method of recording the signature that enables it to be properly authenticated.)

The Trustees must not make regulations which are inconsistent with anything in this deed.

23. Accounts, Annual Report and Annual Return

The Trustees must comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006, with regard to:

- (i) the keeping of accounting records for the Charity;
- (ii) the preparation of annual statements of account for the Charity;
- (iii) the auditing or independent examination of the statements of account of the Charity;
- (iv) the transmission of the statements of account of the Charity to the Commission;
- (v) the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Commission;
- (vi) the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Commission.

24. Registered particulars

The Trustees must notify the Commission promptly of any changes to the Charity's entry on the Central Register of Charities.

25. Bank account

Any bank or building society account in which any of the funds of the Charity are deposited must be operated by the Trustees and held in the name of the Charity. Unless the regulations of the Trustees make other provision, all cheques and orders for the payment of money from such an account shall be signed by at least two Trustees.

26. Trustees not to benefit financially from their Trusteeship

Option 1

(i) Unless expressly authorised in writing in advance by the Commission to do so, no Trustee may buy goods or services from the Charity, or sell goods or services to the Charity or receive remuneration, or receive any other financial benefit from the Charity or from any trading company owned by the Charity.

Option 2

(i) (a) Subject to paragraph (b) of sub clause (i) of this clause, no Trustee may receive remuneration for any service provided to the Charity and no Trustee may acquire any interest in property belonging to the Charity or be interested in any contract entered into by the Trustee otherwise than as a Trustee of the Charity unless expressly authorised in writing in advance by the Commission to do so.

(b) Any Trustee who is a solicitor, accountant or engaged in any profession may charge and be paid all the usual professional charges for business done by him or her or his or her firm, when instructed by the other Trustees to act in a professional capacity on behalf of the Charity. However, at no time may a majority of the Trustees benefit under this provision and a Trustee must withdraw from any meeting of the Trustees at which his or her own instruction or remuneration or performance, or that of his or her firm, is under discussion.

Option 3

(i) (a) No Trustee may buy goods or services from the Charity, or sell goods or services to the Charity, or receive remuneration, or receive any other financial benefit from the Charity or from any trading company owned by the Charity, except in accordance with this deed or with the prior written approval of the Commission and any conditions it prescribes.

(b) The Trustees may employ, or enter into a contract for the supply of goods or services with, one of their number. Before doing so, the Trustees must be satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to employ, or contract with, that Trustee rather than someone who has no connection with the Charity. In reaching that decision, they must balance the advantage of employing a Trustee against the disadvantages of doing so (especially the loss of the Trustee's services as a result of dealing with the Trustee's conflict of interest as required by the next sub-clause). The remuneration or other sums paid to the Trustee must not exceed an amount that is reasonable in all the circumstances. The Trustees must record the reason for their decision in their minute book.

(c) A Trustee must be absent from the part of any meeting at which his or her employment or remuneration, or any matter concerning the contract, are discussed. He or she must also be absent from the part of any meeting at which his or her performance in that employment, or his or her performance of the contract, is considered. He or she must not vote on any matter relating to his employment or the contract and must not be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting.

(d) At no time may a majority of the Trustees benefit under this provision.

(ii) This clause applies to a firm or company of which a Trustee is:

(a) a partner;

(b) an employee;

(c) a consultant;

(d) a director; or

(e) a shareholder, unless the shares of the company are listed on a recognised stock exchange and the Trustee holds less than 1% of the issued capital, as it applies to a Trustee personally.

(iii) In this clause:

(a) "Charity" shall include any company in which the Charity:

- holds more than 50% of the shares; or

- controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or

- has the right to appoint one or more directors to the Board of the company.

(b) "Trustee" shall include any child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother, sister or spouse of the Trustee or any person living with the Trustee as his or her partner.

27. Repair and insurance

The Trustees must keep in repair and insure to their full value against fire and other usual risks all the buildings of the Charity (except those buildings that are required to be kept in repair and insured by a tenant). They must also insure suitably in respect of public liability and employer's liability.

28. Expenses

The Trustees may use the Charity's funds to meet any necessary and reasonable expenses which they incur in the course of carrying out their responsibilities as Trustees of the Charity.

29. Amendment of Trust Deed

- (i) The Trustees may amend the provisions of this deed, provided that:
- (a) no amendment may be made to clause 4 (Application of Income), clause 9 (Duty of care), clause 26 (Trustees not to benefit financially from their trusteeship), clause 30 (Dissolution) or this clause without the prior consent in writing of the Commission; and
- (b) no amendment may be made whose effect is that the Charity ceases to be a Charity at law.
- (ii) Any amendment of this deed must be made by deed following a decision of the Trustees made at a special meeting.
- (iii) The Trustees must send to the Commission a certified copy of the deed effecting any amendment made under this clause within three months of it being made.

30. Dissolution

The Trustees may dissolve the Charity if they decide that it is necessary or desirable to do so. To be effective, a proposal to dissolve the Charity must be passed at a special meeting by a two-thirds' majority of the Trustees. Any assets of the Charity that are left after the Charity's debts have been paid ('the net assets') must be given:

- (i) to another Charity (or other Charities) with objects that are no wider than the Charity's own, for the general purposes of the recipient Charity (or Charities); or
- (ii) to any Charity for use for particular purposes which fall within the Charity's objects.

The Commission must be notified promptly that the Charity has been dissolved and, if the Trustees were obliged to send the Charity's accounts to the Commission for the accounting period which ended before its dissolution, they must send the Commission the Charity's final accounts.

31. Interpretation

In this deed, all references to particular legislation are to be understood as references to legislation in force at the date of this deed and also to any subsequent legislation that adds to, modifies or replaces that legislation.
